hostages, might have made it harder for the Jewish state to back the deal with a big Iran attack.

However, neither Barnea nor other top Israeli officials like Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, Defense Minister Yoav Gallant, or IDF Chief of Staff Lt. Gen. Herzi Halevi ever seriously considered not hitting Iran back hard.

Rather, the Post has learned that the scenario of a comprehensive ceasefire, which some of them are looking at, might develop after Israel strikes Iran and even potentially after both Tehran and Jerusalem engage in a series of strikes and counter-strikes.

Only at that point, once the dust settles, Israel believes that it might be possible to reach a comprehensive ceasefire more along the terms it wants visa vise Hamas and Hezbollah.

The Israeli calculation would be that once the proxies see that their main sponsor, Iran, has itself been hit and, in any case, expended whatever assistance for them that it could have provided, they will be more pragmatic than they are

- Kelal uferat - If a law is stated in the general and then followed by a specific statement, the general law only applies in the specific statement. The reverse is also true: if the particular instances are stated first and are followed by the general category, instances other than the particular ones are included.
- Kayom bo bemaqom 'aber - difficulty in one text may be resolved by comparing it with another similar text.
- Dabar hal'vod me'inyano - a meaning established by its context.
