Biden Admin Violating Law by Withholding Report on Iran's Military, Lawmaker Alleges

Charles Tenney: It is vital that Congress's primary lawmakers have reports—even if it is 2023 they're late.

The report, Tenney says, is vital to Congress's oversight work and efforts to sanction Tehran's growing military industry, which is providing lethal drone technology to Russia in its war on Ukraine. Critics say the Biden administration is reluctant to disclose new developments in such, which would likely fuel calls for increased sanctions against the Iranian regime and torpedo the administration's efforts to revive the Iran nuclear deal.

The White House has been accused of keeping Congress in the dark about the status of its ongoing nuclear negotiations with Iran, which are primarily being brokered through Russia. The administration also
