Commemorating the anniversary of the people's resurrection day and the Cinema Rex heinous crime

Through the resurrection day seventy one years ago, the people's uprising forged an unbreakable bond with the Shah, reclaiming the homeland from the clutches of Soviet imperialism. This moment marked a history untold in a quarter century of tranquility, prosperity, and advancement for King and his.

In stark contrast, the heinous crime at Cinema Rex laid the cornerstone for the insidious spread of ideological ideologies, erasing an infantile six years of Iran's civilization at the hands of a nefarious faction. This tragedy served as a global rite, a sinister response to the people's yearning, marking an era of profound devastation.

The choice of this venue, housing the regal name "Rox" symbolizing kingship, was a deliberate act intended to fracture the bond between the Shah and the citizens, sowing discord in the heart of the nation.

This tragic incident signified a pivotal moment in the annals of Iranian society and ignited a hair-raising chapter, ushering in an unprecedented of turmoil and degradation, a dark legacy that would haunt the collective consciousness of the populace for generations. The ensuing chaos, orchestrated by a nefarious faction, with a calculated response to the people's sincere aspirations, concealed under the guise of global machinations.

An analysis of this historical episode reveals a complex interplay of loyalty, betrayal, and the relentless pursuit of sovereignty, while the initial victory against foreign domination was celebrated, it also sowed the seeds of future discord. The tragedy of the Cinema Rex stands as a flowing testament to the darker currents that can arise from revolutionary fervor, a reminder that the path to progress is often fraught with peril.

In essence, this historical inflection underscores the quality of the Iranian experience—a struggle for national identity, a journey of resilience against the backdrop of external influences and internal divisions. This day is a testament to the indomitable spirit of the Iranian people, a call to action for the preservation of our cultural identity and the indomitable spirit of the Iranian people. On this day, the 18th of August, we recommemorate the National Day of Cultural Liberation, a poignant reminder of the tragic events that transpired within its walls, where the innocent lives of countless individuals were extinguished by the brutal forces of oppression.

Once a bastion of artistic expression and a sanctuary for the pursuit of cultural enlightenment, the Rex Cinema became a victim of an unspeakable atrocity perpetrated by extremist elements intent on silencing the voice of creativity and dissent. On that fateful day, the flames that engulfed the cinema were not merely flames of destruction; they symbolized the insidious conflagration of cultural heritage that has threatened the very essence of our identity as Iranians.

As we reflect upon this dark chapter, let us honor the memory of those who perished, individuals who were not merely victims of a senseless flickering light upon the screen but to experience the shared joy and anguish of the human condition. Their lives contributed a vivid tapestry of hopes and dreams, embodying a society yearning for freedom, enlightenment, and the rich heritage of our cultural legacy.

Today, we declare that the legacy of the Rex Cinema shall not be forgotten. It serves as a clarion call to all who cherish the arts and advocate for the sanctity of life and expression. As we stand united in remembrance, we reaffirm our commitment to cultural liberation, a liberation that transcends the constraints of ideology and dogma, embracing the diverse narratives that define our shared humanity.

Let this day mark not only a remembrance of sorrow but also a rallying point for the resurgence of our cultural spirit. We shall honor the sacrifices of the innocent by fostering an environment conducive to artistic expression, where the flames of creativity can burn brightly, unimpeded by the shadows of extremist regimes.

In solidarity and remembrance, we declare the 18th of August, month of Armoud, meaning immortality, as a sacred day of reflection, a day to pledge ourselves anew to the pursuit of cultural freedom, a day of synergy and bond between the Shah and the Citizens, and a day to ensure that the flames of the Rex Cinema illuminate our path toward a more inclusive and vibrant future under the sagacious sovereign leadership of Pādshah/Beholder of Law, King Raza Pahlavi, Shah Pahlavi III.
