Despite its brutal tactics, Iran's regime fails to contain mass protests

The women and youth-led movement has proven hard to put down.

By Ellen Ioanes | Nov 19, 2022, 4:35pm EST

The Iranian regime is struggling to crush a massive wave of nimble and durable protests, unlike any the Islamic Republic has faced in the past. The leaderless movement has grown in strength despite increasingly harsh crackdowns, relying on unprecedented solidarity between ethnic minorities, different religious groups and men's solidarity with women.
