Agenda Item 5(b)
Emergency Resolutions

Solidarity Statement on Iran

Congress condemns the brutal and murderous repression against the people of Iran by the country's misogynistic regime, following the killing of Jina Mahsa Amini by its agents. Iranian women, supported by men, have bravely protested across the country for their rights, and unions have held strikes, in the face of brutal repression. Hundreds of people have been killed, several protesters have been sentenced to death, and 15,000 have been arrested.

The latest wave of repression comes on top of systematic violation of the fundamental rights of the Iranian people, including their rights to freedom of association, as well as of freedom of speech. Iran is consistently ranked as among the worst countries in the world for workers' rights in the ITUC Global

We're proud to stand with the global union movement in passing this important resolution and send solidarity to workers in Iran. #ITUC22

Solidarity Statement on Iran

Congress condemns the brutal and murderous repression against the people of Iran by the country's misogynistic regime, following the killing of Jina Mahsa Amini by its agents. Iranian women, supported by men, have bravely protested across the country for their rights, and unions have held strikes, in the face of brutal repression. Hundreds of people have been killed, several protesters have been sentenced to death, and 15,000 have been arrested.

The latest wave of repression comes on top of systematic violation of the fundamental rights of the Iranian people, including their rights to freedom of association, as well as of freedom of speech. Iran is consistently ranked as among the worst countries in the world for workers' rights in the ITUC Global Rights Index. Physical trade unions are being targeted, protesters are being arrested for standing up for fundamental rights and defending the interests of working people.

The regime has continually engaged in human rights violations against women, religious and ethnic minorities, political activists and the LGBTQIA+ community.
