Romans 12:1-4.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercies, that you present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to discern what is God's will, what is good, what is pleasing to him—indeed, what he wants you to do. Do not be overcome by the world, the flesh, or the devil, but whatever you do, do it with love, as if you were doing it to the Lord, and as if you were doing it to men, since you are serving the Lord. He is the one who gives us the ability to do these things. Therefore, each of you should love others as you love yourselves, because love is the fulfillment of the law. If you love one another, you will keep the commandments that I have given you, for love is the one that endures all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.
