4.0 Business Information.

4.1 Identify the name (or working title) of the business. [REDACTED]

4.2 Identify the legal name of the business (if different). [REDACTED]

4.2 Describe the type of business that the applicant is proposing to establish.

[REDACTED] presents a novel system for monitoring zoonotic zoonosis and detecting zoonosis and disease based on deep learning diagnostic algorithms. As IoT device including QR, barcode, temperature and light monitoring sensors collects data from various living environments, this data is uploaded to server collected by phone and processed by [REDACTED]'s developed mobile application in real time and [REDACTED] provides zoonosis and disease detection and control. It processes technological resources and innovation, such as deep learning and application in developed software which uses image processing and AI, specifically for detection and diagnosis of zoonosis, including viral, bacteriological, fungal, parasitic, zoonotic, and other zoonosis. The application will monitor and detect zoonosis and disease and provide zoonosis and disease control. [REDACTED] will provide zoonosis and disease control.

4.3 Identify the industry sector of the business.

- Agriculture (includes forestry).
- Clean Technology (includes renewable energy, environmental technology and climate change mitigation, water and food security, sustainable design and engineering, green chemistry and new materials).
- Energy (includes oil and gas, infrastructure technology, power and utilities).
- Information and Communications Technology (includes software, hardware and networks, digital media and social networks, web-based services and cloud computing, e-commerce, mobile technology, gaming).
- Life Sciences (includes healthcare, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology and nanotechnology, medical equipment).
- Manufacturing (includes industrial and advanced materials, automotive and transportation, consumer and electronics).
- Services (includes retail, food and beverage, leisure and recreation, risk and security, financial services, marketing and transportation).
