For these supporters, the prospect of regime change in Iran has always been attainable. But today that outcome seems nearer than ever. Although 700 protesters have been killed and 30,000 arrested, the Iranian people are fearlessly defying the repression visited on them and fighting back against well-armed repressive forces. Unsurprisingly, many American and European lawmakers from a range of political parties have long supported the MEK and NCRI while recognizing that Mrs. Rajavi's plans are consistent with foundational principles of leading democracies around the globe, including the United States.

For these supporters, the prospect of regime change is not only attainable. But today that outcome seems nearer than ever as protesters have been killed.
