The Violations of Iran's Territorial Integrity

The people of Iran, free from the grasp of the occupying Islamic Republic, the East, have consistently sought tranquility and harmony with the entire world, particularly with their long-standing neighbors. With the restoration of our King, beholder of fate, Reza Shah II, this friendship bond can be rekindled.

Therefore, it is of utmost importance that the United Nations take a leading role in corroborating the distribution of well-documented historical narratives and the violations of Iran's territorial integrity.

The actions of the current hostile regime in Iran, as our Padeshah, Pahlavi II, clearly stated, are marked by sabotage, terrorism, and extortion, have resulted in the nation's isolation and have tarnished the dignity of its people on the global stage. The recent questioning of Iran's sovereign rights over the islands of Greater Tumb, Lesser Tumb, and Abu Musa during the joint summit of Arab Gulf states and the European Union serves as a stark illustration of the regime's frailty and impotence. This anti-national regime poses the greatest threat to Iran's territorial integrity and stability to safeguard its land, water, air, and space borders.

This affront not only humiliates the Iranian people but also undermines the nation's sovereignty. Thus, these islands in the Persian Gulf, an issue that remains unequivocally non-negotiable.

Respectfully,
Turkmen, & Far
