...Some 750 protesters have been killed and 30,000 arrested. While any change should come from the Iranian people and their own resistance, the international community has its own responsibility. Attempting to counter the uprising, and creating an atmosphere of terror, the dictators in Iran have intensified mass and extrajudicial executions in recent months, evident in more than 100 executions of prisoners in the first 19 days of May alone. We stand in solidarity with the people of Iran in their desire for a secular and democratic republic where no individual, regardless of religious or birthright, has any privilege over others. Through their slogans the Iranian people have made it clear that they reject all forms of dictatorship, be it the deposed Shah or the current theocratic regime and thus reject any association with either. We believe it is for the Iranian people to decide their future. However, we recognize the fact that over the past four decades, the democratic coalition of the National Council of Resistance has constantly and tirelessly pursued democratic change and to take
